DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) mailed on 6 July 2005 is acknowledged. A phone call was received from Mary Meegan on 11 July 2005 indicating that the IDS was filed in the wrong case. It is clear that the cited references in this IDS are not relevant to the instant application and all citations have been lined through by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 21-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 21 last line recites “pivoting of the footboard toward the front and rear of the footboard”. It is unclear how the footboard can pivot relative to itself.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3611

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. Claims 21-27, 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pahis.

Pahis (see embodiment of Fig. 12) discloses skateboard comprising:

a footboard 402 having a front and a rear;

multiple wheels 50;

and a drive mechanism 406 coupled to both the footboard and the wheels, the drive mechanism being configured to drive at least some of the wheels in response to alternate pivoting of the footboard toward the front and the rear of the footboard wherein the footboard is a single piece;

wherein the skateboard comprises an axle 404b on which two wheels are mounted;

wherein each of the two wheels comprises an overrunning clutch 56 that enables the wheels on the axle to freely rotate when the rotational speed of the wheels exceed the rotational speed of the axle;

wherein the drive mechanism comprises a transmission assembly associated with the

Art Unit: 3611

axle;

wherein the transmission assembly comprises a rack 406a that connects to the footboard with a hinge joint, and gears that are driven by vertical displacement of the rack that results from the pivoting of the footboard;

wherein the rack includes teeth that engage teeth provided on at least one gear such that vertical displacement of the rack causes rotation of the at least one gear;

wherein the axle comprises a rear axle and the transmission assembly comprises a rear transmission assembly, the skateboard further comprising a front axle and a front transmission assembly that is associated with the front axle.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. Claim 28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pahis in view Rills.

Pahis discloses the claimed invention except for a compression spring between the footboard and the drive mechanism.

It is known in the art, for example as taught by Rills, to provide a compression spring 21 between a footboard and a drive mechanism in order to provide a restoring force to the footboard so that the user can more easily drive the device.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Pahis by adding a compression spring, in view of Rills, in order to provide a restoring force to the footboard so that the user can more easily drive the device.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1-4,7-15,17 and 30-41 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 21-29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

10. As set forth in MPEP 714.13, it should be kept in mind that applicant cannot, as a matter of right, amend any finally rejected claims, add new claims after a final rejection (see 37 CFR

Art Unit: 3611

1.116) or reinstate previously canceled claims. Except where an amendment merely cancels claims, adopts examiner suggestions, removes issues for appeal, or in some other way requires only a cursory review by the examiner, compliance with the requirement of a showing under 37 CFR 1.116(c) is expected in all amendments after final rejection. Failure to properly reply under 37 CFR 1.113 to the final rejection results in abandonment.

11. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kevin Hurley whose telephone number is 571-272-6646. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 9:30-5:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Lesley Morris can be reached on 571-272-6651. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
